PROGRAM NOTES

This rock-and-roll-inspired setting of We Three Kings is based on the original hymn. However, creative arranger John M. Pasternak uses syncopated rhythms and driving percussion to provide an upbeat musical experience for the performer and listener. Creative harmonies provide additional flair to this beloved holiday carol.

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR

Be sure to emphasize the dynamics throughout with special focus at the beginning of the arrangement.

The articulations in the low woodwinds and brass should be jazzy throughout the piece. Use the articulation “doo dah, dot, doo dah.” Use jazz articulations in the saxophone section at measure 49. The eighth notes in the horns and clarinets at measure 51 should be light and short.

Please be sure the first trumpet can be clearly heard. Please be sure there is dynamic contrast at measure 41.

The saxophone and horn countermelody at 68 should be clear and present. In a similar fashion, be sure the saxophones and clarinets can be heard at measure 85.

The countermelody in the upper woodwinds should be clearly audible in measure 93. Please note the dynamic contrast from soft to loud in measure 101 to 103.

I wish you and the band a wonderful performance and holiday season!
